Fact or Opinion?

Snakes can be wondrous and awe-inspiring. Many consider them to be a creature to fear and avoid, whilst some believe them to be full of grace and beauty. As well as being a fearsome predator in the wild, snakes can also be a fun pet to care for at home.

Whatever you think of snakes, there are currently more than 3000 different species and at least one type of snake can be found in every continent – except for Antarctica. This is because, as a reptile, snakes are cold-blooded: they do not produce their own body heat. Any snake living in Antarctica would freeze to death rapidly.

Snakes come in a variety of sizes. The thread snake will only grow to about 3.9 inches long, whereas the reticulated python can grow to longer than 6 metres! Many people think that snakes are slimy, however, their bodies are covered in scales which act as a protective armour, allowing them to move over rough or hot surfaces. A snake is capable of shedding this skin several times a year.

Snakes are carnivorous, meaning that they consume meat. Some people believe that all snakes kill their prey with venom. Only a few species do this, such as the cobra and viper. Most snakes will eat their prey whole. A snake's jaw has very stretchy ligaments, so that it can swallow prey 75% larger than itself.

Today, I'm here to interview Leicester City goalkeeper, Kasper Schmeichel.

Interviewer: Thank you so much for speaking to me today. May I begin by saying well done for an amazing season? Leicester City are the 15/16 Premier League champions, much to the astonishment of many.

Kasper: Thank you. We had an interesting season, that's for sure. It's all thanks to a great manager and some really talented players.

Interviewer: Your opponents found it difficult to get goals past you. Why do you think this is?

Kasper: Well, I'm over 6 feet tall and weigh 12 stone, which means that I'm tall and agile enough to be an intimidating figure between the posts.

Interviewer: Your father is the former Manchester United goalkeeper, Peter Schmeichel. Many consider him to be a legend, and one of the best goalkeepers of his generation. Has he taught you much?

Kasper: Lots! Many people say I'm lucky enough to share many of my father's qualities. I seem to have inherited his skills in goal.

Interviewer: Many thanks Kasper and good luck with the next season.

Kind-hearted Scouts Raise Money for Worthy Causes.

A fun day was had by all as local Scouts raise money for charity.

On Saturday 29th April, a local Scout group raised a grand total of £560 by holding a charity fundraising event.

The children, aged between 10 and 14, organised a bake sale, beetle drive, penalty shoot out, face painting, donkey rides and car wash, all in aid of charity.

The Scout Leader, Robert Cartwright (35) said "I'm so proud of everyone involved. The Scouts worked really hard to make the day a success. We all enjoyed a day of fun, whilst raising money for good causes at the same time."

The local residents turned out in force to support the event. Arthur Edwards (75) stated, "My car was in such a bad state. It was covered in mud but the Scouts did an excellent job of getting it clean again. I would happily pay them to clean it every week!"

The money will be divided between two local charities, whose aim is to improve the lives of children in the local community.

After the success of this recent event, the Scouts are now busy planning their next charity fundraiser.
