

Identifying Pronouns

Information:

These questions have been taken from the KS2 GPS test to help your children practise specific question types.

National Curriculum Objectives:

English Year 4: (4G1.5) pronoun

English Year 4: (4G1.5a) possessive pronoun

Differentiation:

Beginner Identifying one pronoun in the sentence (limited to basic pronouns e.g. I, he, she). Aimed at Year 4 Emerging.

Easy Identify two pronouns in the sentence (using a slightly wider range e.g. they, everybody). Aimed at Year 4 Developing.

Tricky Identify all of the pronouns in each sentence (full range of pronouns). Aimed at Year 4 Secure.

Expert Identify the pronouns in a wider range of sentence types. Aimed at Year 4 Mastery.

More GPS resources.

Did you like this resource? Don't forget to review it on our website.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I visited London during the holidays.

Where are you going next?

He is going to help.

What are they doing now?

I will read for a while before bedtime.

Simon asked me to play a game.

She was very talented in a range of sports.

We went straight home.

Where shall we go next?

You have seen that film many times before.

Come with us.

Sammy liked to win because she was very competitive.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I want to read that article.

He enjoyed playing with the remote-controlled car.

Don't go with them.

Uncle Jim bought us a pet snake as a gift.

Give that magazine to Mandy when you have finished.

Come to meet us later.

With more training, she would become a much better rider.

Are you going alone?

She won a rosette in the most recent competition.

Stevie and I wanted to look in the rock pools.

You are going to be late!

We could not wait to get to the beach.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I visited London during the holidays.

Where are you going next?

He is going to help.

What are they doing now?

I will read for a while before bedtime.

Simon asked me to play a game.

She was very talented in a range of sports.

We went straight home.

Where shall we go next?

You have seen that film many times before.

Come with us.

Sammy liked to win because she was very competitive.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I want to read that article.

He enjoyed playing with the remote-controlled car.

Don't go with them.

Uncle Jim bought us a pet snake as a gift.

Give that magazine to Mandy when you have finished.

Come to meet us later.

With more training, she would become a much better rider.

Are you going alone?

She won a rosette in the most recent competition.

Stevie and I wanted to look in the rock pools.

You are going to be late!

We could not wait to get to the beach.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

He went to the football game by himself.

Someone told me it was going to snow later.

He downloaded the new game and we played it all evening.

Everyone told Sean he should become a writer.

It took us a long time to put the tent up, as we struggled.

She had always hated that picture of herself.

Mum told him off for staying out too late, so he apologised.

They all want to come to the party, when we decide on a date.

He loved to sketch, paint and draw and so did I.

They are competing against us this afternoon.

He showed the photo of himself at camp.

We didn't want to play against them again.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I checked mine before I handed it in to the teacher.

They were all amazed by the drama performance he gave.

Grandfather used to be a coal miner himself and so did I.

A favourite flower of mine is the lily, which he knew.

You always seem to make a lot of spelling mistakes and so does she.

The teachers sang at school and they sounded awful, which made us cringe.

The school production was brilliant and we were very proud of them.

She said to take care of ourselves.

I didn't want to borrow the book from him.

I paid, so the book is mine.

He bought me a huge bunch of flowers on Valentine's Day.

She looked at herself in the mirror.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

He went to the football game by himself.

Someone told me it was going to snow later.

He downloaded the new game and we played it all evening.

Everyone told Sean he should become a writer.

It took us a long time to put the tent up, as we struggled.

She had always hated that picture of herself.

Mum told him off for staying out too late, so he apologised.

They all want to come to the party, when we decide on a date.

He loved to sketch, paint and draw and so did I.

They are competing against us this afternoon.

He showed the photo of himself at camp.

We didn't want to play against them again.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I checked mine before I handed it in to the teacher.

They were all amazed by the drama performance he gave.

Grandfather used to be a coal miner himself and so did I.

A favourite flower of mine is the lily, which he knew.

You always seem to make a lot of spelling mistakes and so does she.

The teachers sang at school and they sounded awful, which made us cringe.

The school production was brilliant and we were very proud of them.

She said to take care of ourselves.

I didn't want to borrow the book from him.

I paid, so the book is mine.

He bought me a huge bunch of flowers on Valentine's Day.

She looked at herself in the mirror.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

Everyone told her how cute the pet rabbit was.

We had to clean the house all by ourselves.

I jumped on the bouncy castle before anybody could stop me.

I could not believe she did that!

She had made many plans with friends that week and they all had a great time.

Those exam results of mine were much worse than yours.

Everyone seemed to want to give her advice.

I suppose the fault was all ours.

Despite being scared, they followed him into the tunnel.

Nobody believed that we had seen a ghost.

I dive bombed into the pool and splashed everyone!

They asked him about the new film.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

We were worried about the exam results and so were they.

She was frustrated because she was enjoying herself!

I know yellow is a favourite colour of yours.

The teacher who gave you that certificate must be so proud of you.

She had lots of Easter eggs from them.

A good friend of mine lives on the same street as us.

If she got good grades she would get into university.

They stayed at mine last night.

She suggested a match between us and them.

I told you to finish it yourself.

We will have a turn after them.

He had to come home early from holiday, as he was ill.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

Everyone told her how cute the pet rabbit was.

We had to clean the house all by ourselves.

I jumped on the bouncy castle before anybody could stop me.

I could not believe she did that!

She had made many plans with friends that week and they all had a great time.

Those exam results of mine were much worse than yours.

Everyone seemed to want to give her advice.

I suppose the fault was all ours.

Despite being scared, they followed him into the tunnel.

Nobody believed that we had seen a ghost.

I dive bombed into the pool and splashed everyone!

They asked him about the new film.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

We were worried about the exam results and so were they.

She was frustrated because she was enjoying herself!

I know yellow is a favourite colour of yours.

The teacher who gave you that certificate must be so proud of you.

She had lots of Easter eggs from them.

A good friend of mine lives on the same street as us.

If she got good grades she would get into university.

They stayed at mine last night.

She suggested a match between us and them.

I told you to finish it yourself.

We will have a turn after them.

He had to come home early from holiday, as he was ill.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

We were glad to see her win the trophy at the local swimming gala.

If you bought a present for Harry, remember to give it to him as you leave the party.

He told me he would take the gift back if I didn't like it.

Mum told me that the play was well received by everyone in the village.

She got to meet the famous author at the local bookshop and I took a photo.

Why don't you ask them if they want to stay at mine?

She put it next to the others in the display cabinet, so we could all see them.

Make sure the decorations they bought are up in time if you want to keep them happy.

We couldn't believe that we had to clear it up by ourselves.

When you and I have finished working, we can go out to play.

Everybody said the band were great although they were too loud for me.

The head teacher asked us if we knew whether she had taken the money.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I always try to get the homework done on time before I play outside.

Will you help us defeat these enemies?

Unfortunately, she cut herself whilst gardening.

You would laugh if you could see yourselves right now.

We felt guilty because we had left the rubbish everywhere and hadn't cleared it up!

They must know that they are so much better than us, David.

Grandpa asked me to look after him when we went shopping.

I always like to listen to you play the violin.

Which do you think she will prefer: mine or yours?

He asked himself many questions about the way he had behaved.

Did you know that they have ruined this yet again?

Why do you always blame yourself when we lose the game?

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

We were glad to see her win the trophy at the local swimming gala.

If you bought a present for Harry, remember to give it to him as you leave the party.

He told me he would take the gift back if I didn't like it.

Mum told me that the play was well received by everyone in the village.

She got to meet the famous author at the local bookshop and I took a photo.

Why don't you ask them if they want to stay at mine?

She put it next to the others in the display cabinet, so we could all see them.

Make sure the decorations they bought are up in time if you want to keep them happy.

We couldn't believe that we had to clear it up by ourselves.

When you and I have finished working, we can go out to play.

Everybody said the band were great although they were too loud for me.

The head teacher asked us if we knew whether she had taken the money.

Identifying Pronouns

Circle one pronoun in each of the sentences below.

I always try to get the homework done on time before I play outside.

Will you help us defeat these enemies?

Unfortunately, she cut herself whilst gardening.

You would laugh if you could see yourselves right now.

We felt guilty because we had left the rubbish everywhere and hadn't cleared it up!

They must know that they are so much better than us, David.

Grandpa asked me to look after him when we went shopping.

I always like to listen to you play the violin.

Which do you think she will prefer: mine or yours?

He asked himself many questions about the way he had behaved.

Did you know that they have ruined this yet again?

Why do you always blame yourself when we lose the game?