

Our Vision for History at Flash Ley

To equip our children with the understanding of how our history will shape our future. We ensure our curriculum teaches our children about different civilisations throughout history and the implications of how they lived. They will gain an insight of how their lives are different because of it. By studying the past, children will gain a better understanding of history and be able to distinguish fact from their own opinions.